OFFICE OF THE CHIEF COMMISSIONER, AJMER-MERWARA

NOTIFICATIONS

Ajmer, the 18th January 1950

No. H-282[MP-34].—In exercise of the powers conferred on the Central Government by Section 3 of the Essential Supplies (Temporary Powers) Act, 1946 (Act No. XXIV of 1946), and delegated to him in the Government of India, Ministry of Food, Notification No. PY-603(2)-I dated the 21st October, 1946, as continued under section 17 of the said Act, the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, hereby makes the following order with the concurrence of the Central Government.

1. Short Title, Extent and Commencement.

- (a) This Order may be called the Ajmer-Merwara Foodgrains Monopoly Purchase Order (Order No. II of 1949), 1950.
- (b) It extends to the whole of Ajmer-Merwara.
- (c) It shall come into force from the date of its publication in the Gazette of India.

2. Interpretations.—In this order unless there is anything repugnant in the subject or context :—

- (a) "Wholesale dealer" means the person or firm holding a wholesale licence to deal in foodgrains.
- (b) "Retail dealer" means a person or a firm holding a retail licence to deal in foodgrains.
- (c) "Producer or Stockist" means a person or a dealer whether wholesale or retail or a firm possessing a stock of foodgrains either as the produce of his own fields or on behalf of any other person, dealer or firm and others.
- (d) "Monopoly Purchaser" means and includes any person, firm, corporation, association or a partnership of persons holding a wholesale dealers' licence for dealing in foodgrains, and appointed as Monopoly Purchaser by the Chief Commissioner, Ajmer-Merwara, by any special or general order either for one or both the harvests in regard to any part of the whole of Ajmer-Merwara for a particular year.
- (e) "Province" means the province of Ajmer-Merwara.
- (f) "Sub Division" means the Ajmer, Beawar or Kekri Sub Division of the province under the administrative control of its respective Sub-Divisional Officer which in the case of Beawar shall mean and shall always be deemed to have meant, the Extra Assistant Commissioner, Beawar, and in the case of Ajmer, the Additional Assistant Commissioner, Ajmer.
- (g) "Controlled Rate" means the rate for the purchase and sale of foodgrains either in wholesale or retail fixed or to be fixed hereafter by the Chief Commissioner.

3. The Chief Commissioner may by issue of a special or general order appoint monopoly purchasers for a particular year for the purchase of foodgrains of one or both the harvests in regard to any part or the whole of Ajmer-Merwara.

4. No person other than a Monopoly Purchaser so appointed shall purchase on behalf of the government any quantity of Kharif foodgrains, viz., jowar, bajra, maize or admixtures of any two or more of such foodgrains, from any producer or stockist or a dealer of foodgrains in the province at the controlled rates.

Provided that the Controller of Rationing may authorise any person, including Government Departments and dealers, to purchase any specified quantity of foodgrains during the kharif harvest from any part of or within any sub-division of the province, at the rates fixed by the Local Administration in this behalf.

5. Monopoly Purchasers so appointed shall be debarred from doing any private business in foodgrains whatsoever while acting as purchasing agents of the Government.

6. Monopoly Purchasers shall execute an undertaking or give a guarantee regarding the quantity that they undertake to procure, and shall also be required to furnish securities of the value required by the Controller of Rationing in his discretion.

7. Monopoly Purchasers shall abide by all the instructions issued and conditions laid down by the Controller of Rationing from time to time in respect of the purchase, storage and sale of foodgrains and the maintenance of account books and shall keep their stocks of foodgrains in good order.

8. Any person contravening the provisions of this order shall be liable, without prejudice to any additional action against him in a court of law, to the forfeiture of all or any part of his security amount and cancellation of his monopoly agency.

9. The Chief Commissioner, or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf, may suspend or cancel the appointment of a Monopoly Purchaser, or restrict or enlarge his area of Monopoly Purchases without assigning any reasons therefor.

10. The Chief Commissioner, or any other officer authorised by him in this behalf, may on the recommendation of the Controller of Rationing forfeit a part or whole of the security amount of a Monopoly Purchaser if he is found to be not working to the satisfaction of the Controller, or is suspected to have been guilty of mal-practices or is found failing in the fulfilment of his guarantees.

NOTIFICATIONS

Delhi, the 20th January 1950

No. F. 12(67)|49-P&D|MLT.—Substitute "Theatre Sister" for the words "Theatre Assistant" appearing in this office Notification No. F. 12(67)|49-P&D|MLT, dated the 14th December, 1949.

By order,

K. K. SHARMA,

Secretary (Local Self Government) to the Chief Commissioner, Delhi.

Delhi, the 21st January 1950

No. F. 4(8)|49-LSG.—The following bye laws made by the Municipal Committee of Delhi-Shahdara in exercise of the powers conferred by section 31 of the Punjab Municipal Act, 1911, as extended to the Delhi Province having been confirmed by the Chief Commissioner of Delhi, as required by section 201 of the said Act, are published for general information. The said bye-laws shall come into force within the Municipality of Delhi-Shahdara on the 15th February 1950.

BYE-LAWS

(a) Time and place of meeting.

1. The meetings both Ordinary and Special shall ordinarily be held in the Town Hall. The time and date of the Meetings shall be fixed at the discretion of the Secretary subject to orders of the President.

(b) The manner in which notice of Ordinary and Special Meetings and adjourned Meeting shall be given.

2. A notice to attend a meeting shall specify the place, the day and the hour of the meeting and the business proposed to be transacted thereat.

3. A notice of ordinary or Special Meeting shall be sent or circulated to every member at least 3 days before the time fixed, but the President may convene and adjourn meeting and in cases of Special emergency an Ordinary or Special Meeting at a shorter notice.

(c) The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at Ordinary Meetings.

4. The quorum necessary for the transaction of business at an Ordinary meeting shall be three.

(d) The conduct of proceedings at meetings and the adjournment of meetings.

5. No business not on the agenda shall be considered either at a special or an ordinary meeting without the sanction of the President.

6. Save when proceeding is taken under the provisions of Sub-section (2) of section 25 of the Act.

(i) no matter shall be laid before the special meeting save by direction of an ordinary meeting or by an order of the President, or the Secretary, and

(ii) any member wishing to bring any matter before the Committee should send his proposal to the Secretary who shall submit it to the President for information. The President will send the proposal to the Committee except in special cases in which he, for reasons to be recorded for refusing to do so, may consider this undesirable.

7(a) All business of the Committee shall be conducted in English or local vernacular. In case of local vernacular the script shall be as resolved by the Committee from time to time in conformity with the directions of the Provincial Government.

(b) The Chairman of the meeting shall regulate the course of all the business to be brought forward, and preserve order.

(c) Any member dissenting from any motion passed by a majority of votes shall be entitled to have his name recorded.

(d) No member except the proposer of the resolution shall speak more than once, except with the permission of the Chairman, on that resolution. The proposer after hearing all others who wish to speak may again address the Committee.

(e) All questions from one member to another relating to the business of the meeting shall be put through the Chairman.

(f) All other points of procedure at any meeting shall be decided at the discretion of the Chairman.

(g) The proceedings of every meeting shall be read and confirmed at the succeeding meeting.

8. The Chairman may adjourn any meeting from time to time but no business shall be transacted at an adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place, unless due notice that such business will be brought forward has been given.

9(1) Any subject which the Committee has disposed of by resolution may only be reconsidered by the Committee if it is referred

(a) on a motion of the President, or

(b) in compliance with the suggestion of the Provincial Govt. or the Deputy Commissioner, or

(c) on the application of the person aggrieved, provided such application is made within 3 months of the date of the resolution complained of and the President has passed orders on it for reconsideration.

(2) A. A case which has once been reconsidered shall not be re-opened unless the President, for reasons to be recorded, refers it to the Committee. All such references shall be considered at a Special Meeting.

10. All meetings shall be held with open doors unless a question, order or other special matter shall arise when the Chairman may order the room to be cleared of strangers.

11. A copy of the minutes of meetings shall be supplied to any local newspaper, if asked for, subject to the concurrence of the President.

(e) The custody of the common seal and the purposes for which it shall be used.

12. A common Seal of the Committee shall remain in the custody of the Secretary, and shall be used on all notices issued under the Municipal Act and bye-laws, rules, directions and orders thereunder, and on all contracts, proclamations, copies of documents and any other important document requiring the same.

(f) The appointment of Sub Committees and their duties, the division of duties among the members of the Committee and the powers to be exercised by such members as are primarily responsible for the current executive administration whether President, Vice-President, members of Sub Committees or individual members.

13. If considered necessary for facility of transacting business at the meetings the committee may at a Special meeting appoint standing Sub Committees and specify the business that shall be brought before the Committee through each standing Sub Committee. Each Sub Committee so appointed shall consist of not less than 3 members but the quorum shall in all cases be 2 irrespective of the actual number of members. Nothing in this bye-law shall be deemed to preclude the Committee or the President from directing any member or appointing a Sub Committee of not less than 3 members to report on a particular matter whether or not such matter is within the cognisance of a standing Sub Committee, if any.

14. The President shall be ex-officio member and President of every sub committee appointed under the preceding bye law. The rules of procedure shall follow as closely as possible those laid down above for the conduct of meetings of the whole committee and shall be subject in all matters to the control of a Special meeting of the Committee.

15. The term of office of each appointed member of a Sub Committee shall be such as may elapse between the Special Meeting at which he was appointed a member of the Sub Committee, and the Special Meeting to be held after an year next fold.

16. The President or the Secretary may for the sake of expedition or for other reasons to be recorded refer any business direct to the Committee for disposal without sending it to the Sub-Committee.

17. In the absence of the President from the Province the Vice-President shall perform all the duties of the President and have the same powers. But the President may delegate any of his powers to the Vice-President by an order in writing and may revoke such powers at any time by a similar order.

- (g) The persons by whom receipts shall be granted on behalf of the Committee for money received under the Act.
